Yeah, I'll make some calls and see what I find. Here's the one from SJV- this particular facility is also owned by Hickman, and appears to be of a similar design to Tonopah. I have not read this,

Hi Eugene,

FYI on what Kathleen's looking for below.

I'm looking for information to provide to Kathleen. I'll check with my contact in Region 5, and am looking for the appropriate person in Region 3. If you have any permits contacts from either Region, can you also talk with them about egg laying facilities that may have air permits so we may do some comparisons?

Thanks,

Janice

If you need a point of contact in region 5, let me know. Also, I think it is Delaware that has significant chicken operations. If you need a contact in Region 3 let me know.

Hi,

I received this from Steve today. Thought I would pass on so you could read the documents before the meeting.
